About Us

Quantifying Software Cost and Risk

TOTAL METRICS believes in an IT Industry that continually pursues excellence and inspires confidence in its customers.

We seek new and innovative methods, products, standards and processes to ensure you deliver IT services with a professionalism that ensures your customers get exactly what they expect, when they expect it.

SCOPE Project Sizing Software™

TOTAL METRICS partners internationally with organisations that share our vision of an IT industry that pursues continual improvement.

We constantly innovate and network to find the best methods and products to contribute to the advancement of our Industry. We believe that all IT Providers should be a trusted and respected partner, and together with their customers, deliver high quality outcomes that achieve maximum return on investment.

We work in all the IT hot-spots including Asia Pacific, USA, UK, China, Europe, India and Japan.

TOTAL METRICS consultants are internationally recognised metrics experts and are significant contributors to international measurement standards. Pam Morris the CEO is on the executive of the Australian Software Metrics Association and is the Vice President of the International Software Benchmarking Standards Group Committee (ISBSG).

TOTAL METRICS has represented Australia on the International COSMIC Executive, the ISO/IEC SC7 committee and the IFPUG Counting Practices Committee. We represent Standards Australia IT15 on the on the ISO/IEC standards 14143 for Functional Size Measurement.

TOTAL METRICS consultants are regularly invited to speak at International Metrics conferences in the USA, Japan, UK, Korea, India, China, Spain, Germany, Italy and South Africa and participate in international research projects in the field of software metrics.

TOTAL METRICS develop and distribute the world leading software product SCOPE Project Sizing Software™ built by their experts for practical implementation of Function Point Analysis.

TOTAL METRICS consultants are all tertiary qualified and have at least 15 years experience specifically in the field of software metrics and between 15 and 20 years experience in Information Technology. They are officially accredited by the International Function Point Users Group, as certified Software Measurement Specialists (CSMS) and Functional Point Sizing Specialists (CFPS). Certified Investment Logic Map Facilitators.
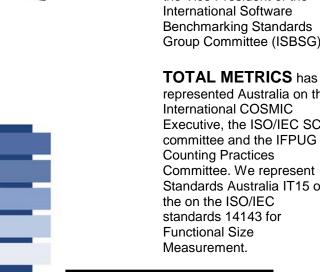

TOTAL METRICS was the first specialist metrics company to be selected for the Victorian Government eServices Panel and the Qld GITC panel.

TOTAL METRICS specialises in assisting organisations (both client and supplier) implement metrics to facilitate management of their internal development environment and outsourcing contractual arrangements.

TOTAL METRICS act as independent Scope Managers to provide consultancy in project estimation, supplier evaluation, scope variations and pricing.

TOTAL METRICS
Ph: +61 3 9882 7611
Admin@totalmetrics.com
www.totalmetrics.com